“May is Mental Health Awareness Month” Event:

Free Pony Rides, Face Painting & Hot Dogs Featured At Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic 11th Annual Family FunFest!

LOS ANGELES (June 2, 2009) – Face painting, pony rides, hot dogs, dental screenings and mental health services all come together Saturday May 30 at the 11th annual Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic Family Funfest – the clinic’s biggest “Mental Health Awareness Month” event of the year.

The Clinic – celebrating 85 years of mental health services to South and Central Los Angeles – welcomes local families for free activities at Family Funfest, including art, crafts, entertainment and clowns. A perennial favorite – Los Angeles Fire Department Fire Station 15 – is also scheduled, as are enrollment for Medi-Cal, Healthy Families, and mental health services.

Family Funfest runs from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Clinic’s Exposition Park site – 3787 S. Vermont Ave, just south of Exposition Boulevard. Free parking is available across from the Clinic at Five Star Parking in Lot #3. Access the parking on Vermont Avenue or 39th Street.

Please call Lisa at 323-373-2400 x3360 for more information.

About the Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic: The mission of the Los Angeles Child Guidance Clinic is to provide quality mental health services by ensuring easy access and promoting early intervention. This is achieved by providing family-centered and culturally sensitive mental health services and specialized educational services to seriously emotionally disturbed children.*
